REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. M.-The St. Louis team outplayed, outfielded, and outbatted the Pirates to-day, and as a result laid it over the home team by a score of 5 to 2.

The Cardinals played good ball all around, but Wallace was the star of the ec-Powell, who pitched for the visitors, had the Pittsburgers guessing. There were times when timely hits would have brought in runs, and at those times Powell was at his best. But even with poorer pitching, the Cardinals might have poorer pitching, the Cardinais might have won, for Powell's support was of the very best. Everything that the St. Louis fielders should have got they did get, and on many occasions when the crowd fully expected them to get nothing they handed out some offended were Bransfield, Wagner and Ritchey.

There was a big crowd out to see the game. Turner, the Pirate's new third baseman, who made a good record in the games man, who made a good record in the games with Cincinnati, covered third and Patsy Donovan knew he was on the nervous seat, Much of the visitors' cannonading was directed toward third base, and as a result Turner was kept pretty busy. The two chances that he fell down on cost the Pittsburg team something. Other Pirates that offended were Bransfield, Wagner and Ritchey.

Wallace the Star.

The Pirates could do nothing with Powell's delivery, and the Cardinals gave the boilermaker fine support. Rhoddy Wallace seemed to be all over the field and was a whole team in himself. Some of his stops were little short of marvelous and called forth vigorous applause from the crowd. In the first inning Wallace made a fine stop of Beaumont's hot grounder.

Donovan and Padden made a strong kick on Hank O'Day's decision on Turner. After McGann had fumbled Turner's grounder, Padden threw the ball, but O'Day said Turner was safe. Kruger made a fine play on Bransfield's bunt in the sixth inning. In the eighth Donovan made a long run for Beaumont's fly.

A sensational play was made by Wallace in the ninth inning. Ritchey batted out a hot liner and Wallace, impning high in the air, pulled down the ball, making a great to first just in time to nip Ritchey.

Pirates Erred Many Times.

Jack Chesbro was on the rubber for the Pirates, but his pitching was away behind his usual form and his support was weird. Five errors were made behind him and for soveral runs made by the St. Louis team these errors were partly responsible. Chesbro registered his usual wild pitch, and a passed ball was officially scored against O'Connor.

No runs were made until the third luning passed ball was officially stocked by the control of connor.

No runs were made until the third inning was reached. Then the Cardinals started off with a bunch of two as a result of three singles. Errors by Bransfield, a base on singles. Burkett and a sacrifice by Powell and a sacrification and a sacrif off with a bunch of two as a result of three singles. Errors by Bransfield, a base on hails to Burkett and a sacrifice by Powell alded the St. Louisans. The Pirates got one run in the third when O'Connor doubled and scored on Ciarke's triple to middle field. In the fourth inning honors were even, each team scoring one run. The visitors got their run on a three-bagger by Padden, a sacrifice by Ryan and Powell's long fly. Wagner registered the Pirates' run by drawing a base on balls, stealing second and third and scoring on Ritchey's single to right field.

In the seventh inning the Cardinals made two runs as the result of two bunts that were well placed by Burkett and Heidrick, Donovan's sacrifice, Wallace's fly out to Beaumont and Wagner's low throw in an effort to head off Kruger at first base. Although the Pirates fought to the finish, Powell held his own, and against such pitching they could do nothing. Score:

should be a last go, and no matter what the remembered that when Chesbro twiried his last game in St. Louis the Donovanites were unable to shake off more than six safe hits.

This occasion was made memorable by the big score which the Sinokeville group rolled up in two heavy innags. It sterous this

A very surprising and gratifying reversal

the age of miracles is not past. The Pirates

Chesbro is rated as the steadlest one. If Harper shows on the boards with blue is being agitated among the local fains is whether the batting streak was only a temporary spurt or the beginning of a revival of steady hitting.

Not a Pirate has a clean fielding sheet. Davis and Yeager took the feather edge off their records last week, "Lefty" by getting in wrong with a fly ball at Cincinnati and Yeager by trying on Tommy Leach's third-base brogns.

A queer thing happened at Boston Saturday in the game between the Boston and Cleveland teams of the American League. Beck, the Forest City first baseman, nad nine assists, but no put-outs. nine assists, but no put-outs.

Frank Murphy, who was seen here in the right garden for Boston, has been booked for still another change. Murphy was assigned to New York by Cincinnati, which club President Young declared had a prior right to Murphy, thus rendering void the sale of Murphy to Boston by the New Haven club. Boston was ordered by Young to give Murphy up to Cincinnati, by which he was loaned to New York. Now Murphy has left the Glants, having been ordered to do so by Nick Young, who decided that he is the property of New Haven. It is possible that New Haven may return Murphy to the Selecites. Murphy covered the middle sack for the Gothamites in a war that picased George Davis. Davis will have to go on another hunt for a man to fill Murphy's shoes.

The fact that Jack Ryan secured two singles yesterday is worth recording. Ryan's safeties were instrumental in the run gathering and were both clean hits. 'Oom Paul' Kruger failed to register his customary hit yesterday. Besides dazzling the Pittsburg fans with his brilliant helding, Bobby Wallace rapped out two safe ones. Hans Wagner showed to disadvantage in the field beside his St. Louis rival, but the burly Pirate negotiated the steal of two bases on one hit. Heidrick also rapped out a couple of safe ones.

Jack Powell seems to be the only Cardinal twirler who has the heavy Pirate aggregation bluffed. Murphy, Sudhoff and Harper were nuts to the Pennsylvanians in the recent series at League Park, but "Steady Jack" seems to be able to turn the trick against the topliners every time. Powell struck out six men yesterday.

Nearly every grand commander at the conclave is regarded as a candidate, and a great deal of quiet electioneering was done to-day.

The selection of the next meeting place for the conclave will be one of the last things to come before the encampment. St. Paul, Milwaukee and San Francisco are making strong bids for the honor. Denver and Cincinnati are also in line, while St.

CANCER

Sufferers from this horrible malady nearly always inherit it—not necessarily from the parents, but may be from some remote ancestor, for Cancer often runs through several generations. This deadly poison may lay dormant in the blood for years, or until you reach middle life, then the first little sore or ulcer makes its appearance—or a swollen gland in the breast, or some other part of the body, gives the first warning.

To cure Cancer thoroughly and permanently all the poisonous virus must be eliminated from the blood—every vestage of it driven out. This S. S. S. does, and is the only medicine that can reach deep-seated, obstinate blood troubles like this. When all the poison has been forced out of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.

of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.

Cancer begins often in a small way, as the following letter from Mrs. Shirer shows:

A small pimple came on my law about an inch below the ear on the left side of my face. It gave me no pain or inconvenince, and I should have forgetten about it had it not begun to inflame and fitch; it would bleed a little, then scabover, but would not heal. This continued for some time, when my law began to swell, becoming very painful. The Cancer began to cut and spread, until it was as large as a half dollar, when I heard
